

HARRY DENTON HAWLEY 1880-1954

“Summer Landscape, Robin Hood’s Bay”

Denton Hawley was a landscape painter and etcher who is recorded in the census of 1901 as a black and white scraperboard artist.

The Fylingdales Group of Artists was formed in June 1925 spurred on by Hawley at his Robin Hood’s Bay studio. He was the organisation’s first Secretary.