Saturday 11 May

2.00pm in Fylingdales Village Hall

“Propagandseys”

Deb Gillanders will give one of her fascinating illustrated talks on fishermen’s ganseys. Deb collects and displays ganseys, some of which have been specially loaned to her. Lots of links to RHB, Leo and the Dukes!

A recent review in Bayfair said “It must be hard to find anyone quite so enthusiastic about her subject as Deb Gillanders”

If you think you own a “proper gansey” then bring it along for authentication!

Entry is free. Light refreshments available

7pm for 7.30pm in Fylingdales Village Hall

An Evening for Members Only

Member Nick Foggo will give an illustrated talk on progress so far with the Ulric Catalogue

President Sean Walmsley will give an illustrated talk on his mother Margaret.

Wine and nibbles will be available.

Sunday 12 May

10.00am Sunday Walk

Meet at the Village Hall car park

The Bluebell Walk – through the fields of bluebells on the coastal path towards Whitby and back via the old railway line.

Enjoy the wonderful views, the bluebells and the camaraderie.

Stout footwear is essential for this walk!

1.00pm Lunch at the Victoria Hotel

After lunch - Committee Meeting

Resident’s lounge, Victoria Hotel
