

Walmsley Society GDPR Privacy Notice

The Walmsley Society is committed to maintaining the trust and confidence of our members and customers. In particular, we want you to know that the Society is not in the business of selling, renting or trading email lists with other companies and businesses for marketing purposes; quite simply, we are just not interested in this sort of thing.

Types of data we collect

Website cookies: when someone visits www.walmsleysoc.org we use a third party service, Google Analytics, to collect standard internet log information and details of visitor behaviour patterns. We do this to find out things such as the number of visitors to the various parts of the site. This information is only processed in a way that does not identify anyone. We do not make, and do not allow Google to make, any attempt to find out the identities of those visiting our website.

Membership

When you become a member of the Walmsley Society, your name, address, telephone number (if disclosed) and email address will be stored by the Society's Membership Officer, the Secretary (for Journal and newsletter distribution), and books distributor (because, as Members get free postage on most of the books, we have to confirm membership status). And of course we need to know who and where you are so we can deliver the Society Journals and newsletters, as well as advise you of changes to the Constitution and other matters directly associated with the Society. These details will not be shared.

You are entitled to view, amend, or delete the personal information that we hold. Email your request to our Data Protection Officer using the contact form here and starting your message with FAO DPO.

Sales

When you purchase any item from us, either using our website or postal ordering service, your name, address, email and contact number will be stored in our sales system purely for the purpose of distributing the items to you. For online sales, credit card or bank account data will be seen only by PayPal and will not be made available to us. Please be assured that we do not share your personal details with any other company.

Any other aspects

The above safeguards apply to all aspects of our relationship with people, such as making enquiries or advising us of a painting by J Ulric Walmsley (where we may get in touch to arrange for sending a photo).

Changes to this privacy notice

This policy will be open to revision as appropriate, with the benefit of experience and legal amendments. Date of the most recent amendment: 24 May 2018.
